O razstavi

Sedmi mednarodni fotografski natečaj ABSTRACT 2026 je ponovno pritegnil lep odziv fotografov. Na natečaj se je prijavilo 199 avtorjev iz 12 držav, kar kaže na to, da zanimanje za fotografijo, ki presega zgolj dokumentiranje, ostaja močno in prisotno.

Teme natečaja, ki obsegajo abstraktno fotografijo, prosto barvno in prosto črno-belo, so ponudile širok nabor pristopov. Med prispelimi deli smo lahko videli vse od tihožitij, detajlov iz narave in subtilnih svetlobnih situacij, do uličnih prizorov, portretov in bolj pripovednih motivov. Barvna fotografija pogosto gradi na vzdušju in barvnih odnosih, medtem ko črno-bela poudari svetlobo in tonski kontrast. Prav ta raznolikost pristopov in načinov gledanja daje izboru širino ter pestrost.

Izbor fotografij v abstraktni kategoriji lepo pokaže, kako različno lahko avtorji pristopajo k istemu izhodišču, hkrati pa tudi, da abstraktna fotografija ni enoten slog, ampak odprt prostor interpretacije. Zanimivo je, da avtorji do abstrakcije prihajajo na različne načine, skozi gibanje, svetlobne učinke, detajle iz narave ali bolj likovne pristope. Prav ta razpon tehnik in pogledov daje izboru dodatno dinamiko.

Žirija je pri izboru upoštevala predvsem izvirnost, tehnično kakovost, estetiko in kreativnost. Pri tem se pokaže, da fotografija ne deluje le kot zapis realnosti, temveč jo vedno tudi interpretira. Skozi izbiro motiva, kadra, svetlobe in trenutka avtor oblikuje svoj pogled na svet. Fotografija zato ni le to, kar je pred objektivom, ampak tudi način, kako je to prikazano. Hkrati so izstopale tiste fotografije, ki delujejo preprosto, a premišljeno, kjer ni nič odveč in kjer vsak element v kadru nekaj prispeva. To so tudi fotografije, ki gledalca za trenutek ustavijo.

Zmagovalna abstraktna fotografija Philosophy of Life izstopa po močni svetlobni atmosferi in občutku prostora. Pogled vodi proti figuri, ki deluje majhna, a hkrati ključna za celoten vtis. Fotografija odpira razmislek o filozofiji življenja v neskončnem prostoru, v katerem obstajamo.

Pri prosti barvni fotografiji Young Shepherd je zelo močan prvi stik. Pogled mladega pastirja takoj pritegne in zadrži pozornost. Deluje zelo pristno, brez odvečnih detajlov, in ravno v tej preprostosti je njena moč.

Črno-bela fotografija Waiting for the Puberty ujame mladi dekleti v raziskovanju odraščanja, nekje med radovednostjo in zadržanostjo. V tem trenutku je čutiti pričakovanje, pa tudi bližino, ki ju povezuje.

Čestitke avtorjem nagrajenih del ter vsem avtorjem sprejetih fotografij. Tudi med slednjimi je bilo mogoče najti več izjemnih del, ki so se uvrstila v ožji izbor za nagrade, kar dodatno potrjuje visoko raven letošnjega natečaja.

About the Exhibition

The 7th International Photography Contest ABSTRACT 2026 once again attracted an excellent response from photographers. A total of 199 authors from 12 countries entered the contest, showing that interest in photography that goes beyond mere documentation remains strong and present.

The contest themes, which include abstract photography, open color, and open black-and-white photography, offered a wide range of approaches. Among the submitted works, we could see everything from still lifes, details from nature, and subtle lighting situations to street scenes, portraits, and more narrative motifs. Color photography often builds on atmosphere and color relationships, while black-and-white photography emphasizes light and tonal contrast. It is precisely this diversity of approaches and ways of seeing that gives the selection its breadth and variety.

The selection of photographs in the abstract category clearly shows how differently authors can approach the same starting point, while also demonstrating that abstract photography is not a single style, but an open space for interpretation. It is interesting that authors arrive at abstraction in various ways: through movement, lighting effects, details from nature, or more artistic approaches. This very range of techniques and perspectives gives the selection additional dynamism.

In making its selection, the jury primarily considered originality, technical quality, aesthetics, and creativity. This reveals that photography does not function merely as a record of reality, but always interprets it as well. Through the choice of subject, framing, light, and moment, the author shapes their view of the world. Photography is therefore not only what is in front of the lens, but also the way in which it is presented. At the same time, the photographs that stood out were those that appear simple yet carefully considered, where nothing is superfluous and where every element in the frame contributes something. These are also the photographs that make the viewer pause for a moment.

The winning abstract photograph Philosophy of Life stands out with its strong atmosphere of light and sense of space. The viewer's gaze is led toward a figure that appears small, yet is essential to the overall impression. The photograph opens up reflection on the philosophy of life within the infinite space in which we exist.

In the open color category, Young Shepherd makes a very strong first impression. The gaze of the young shepherd immediately attracts and holds the viewer's attention. It feels very authentic, without unnecessary details, and it is precisely in this simplicity that its strength lies.

The black-and-white photograph Waiting for the Puberty captures two young girls exploring growing up, somewhere between curiosity and restraint. In this moment, one can sense expectation, as well as the closeness that connects them.

Congratulations to the authors of the awarded works and to all authors of the accepted photographs. Among the accepted works, there were also several outstanding photographs that made it into the shortlist for awards, further confirming the high standard of this year's contest.
